STUDENT TUITION RECOVERY FUND (STRF)

The State of California established the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) to relieve or mitigate economic loss suffered by a student in an educational program at a qualifying institution, who is or was a California resident while enrolled, or was enrolled in a residency program, if the student enrolled in the institution, prepaid tuition, and suffered an economic loss. Unless relieved of the obligation to do so, you must pay the state-imposed assessment for the STRF, or it must be paid on your behalf, if you are a student in an educational program, who is a California resident, or are enrolled in a residency program, and prepay all or part of your tuition.

The institution shall refund the unused portion of tuition fees and other charges if the student does not register for the period of attendance or withdraws there from at any time prior to completion of the course, or otherwise fails to complete the period of enrollment. The institutional refund policy for students who have completed 60 percent or less of the course of instruction shall be a pro-rated refund.

The refund shall be calculated as follows:

1. Deduct a registration fee
2. If applicable deduct the STRF
3. Divide this figure by the number of hours in the program.
4. The quotient is the hourly charge for the program.
5. The amount owed by the student for the purpose of calculation a refund is derived by multiplying the total hours attended by the hourly charge for instruction plus the amount of the registration fee.
6. The refund shall be any amount in excess of the figure derived that was paid by the student.

This institution does not provide State or Federal financial aid.

If the student obtains a loan to pay for an educational program, the student will have the responsibility to repay the full amount of the loan plus interest, less the amount of any refund.
